

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media deregulation and consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is not only a violation of election laws, a clear attempt by a giant corporation to interfere with the democratic process.

It is the FCC's job to protect the public interest and enforce the laws. Please do so.
